Re: Letter 32A00019022

Dear Ms. Butler:

It was with great anxiety that I discovered you had administratively dissolved my corporation for an apparent nonpayment of $10.00. Please reinstate my corporation immediately. It will be my major source of income which you have taken away with an administration dissolution of my corporation for a misunderstanding. Enclosed is a corporate check for $10.00.

I started this corporation in 1983, made all annual reports and payments on time since 1983 including this year. I was only trying to amend my corporate documents to remove an ineffective director and install a new director when this debacle started. I sent my request for an amendment.

I received a request to fill out the Florida form for amendments and forwarded it back in June 2024. I got a second request to fill out the form which I did and did not realize I needed to send a $10 check or I would have done so. I sent back all the paperwork so you would have a track of these requests.

I am sending back your letter of August 26, 2023 with an urgent request for you to reinstate my corporation. I am so distraught that a corporation of many years can so easily be removed and that the administration does not care about the consequences of shutting down an active business of so many years.

Sincerely,

DECISION SERVICES INTERNATIONAL, LLC

Patricia Ryan
