To whom it may concern,

I am drafting this letter to request a refund of $400 in late fees. On September 22 of 2008 I formed the entity Doug Wittmer Investments, LLC. I never received a renewal notice for 2009 in the mail. In June of 2009 it received a Notice Of Intent To Dissolve. At that time I got online to correct this. The fee to renew was $538.75, which I paid. The follow day I contacted your office and explained the situation and was instructed to draft this letter and request a refund since I never received a renewal notice. I was informed that a renew notice may not have gone out since the entity was form so late in the year.

I look forward to your response and thank you for your time and consideration.

Regards,

Doug Wittmer
