Sir,

We have just received the second notice of the 1997 Profit Corporation Annual Report packet. This is the first packet we have received. Do to a change in ownership, we have had numerous problems with mail going awry at our previous mailing address, Mail Box ETC. We have changed our address to a US post office box. P.O. box 9165, Coral Springs, FL. 33075. Since we changed our address, mail has not been consistently forwarded. There is no doubt that your office mailed us the first notice, but it never got forwarded from our previous Mail Box ETC suite box address. We understand that it is our responsibility to insure that annual reports are mailed to your office on time, however, we hope that your policy has room for situations such as ours. We are a very small one man company and this late fee presents an enormous problem. We are therefor inclosing a check for $165.00. If this is not acceptable, we are sure that we will hear from your office prior to September 17, 1997.

Thank you for your consideration of our problem.

Sincerely,
Ivette Gutierrez
President
