Re: W09000008772

Dear Ms. Bruce:

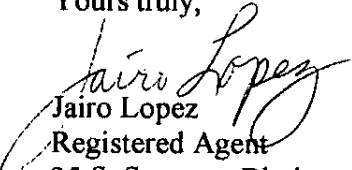

I am in receipt of your letter of February 24th concerning our request to incorporate La Arenosa LLC. Please note that we have purchased this business as of March 1, 2009. The original owners of La Arenosa, Inc. (Jesus Rosales and Elvira Rosales) have requested the dissolution of the original corporation (V11013). I am enclosing a copy of their Articles of Dissolution and their Cover Letter.

Therefore, since their corporation has been dissolved, it is our understanding we may utilize the name La Arenosa LLC.

Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter. We are waiting for the Corporation Number so that we may proceed to request sales tax identification, occupational licenses, etc.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours truly,

Jairo Lopez

We have received your document for LA ARENOSA LLC and your check(s) totaling $130.00. However, the enclosed document has not been filed and is being returned for the following correction(s):

The name designated in your document is unavailable since it is the same as, or it is not distinguishable from the name of an existing entity. Section 608.406, Florida Statutes, was amended effective July 1, 2007, to require the name of a limited liability company to be distinguishable from the names of all other filings filed with the Division of Corporations, except for fictitious name registrations and general partnership registrations.

Please select a new name and make the correction in all the appropriate places. One or more words may be added to make the name distinguishable from the one presently on file. Adding of Florida or Florida to the end of the name is not acceptable. A search for name availability can be made on the Internet through the Division's records at www.sunbiz.org.

Please note the name of a limited liability company must end with the words Limited Liability Company, the abbreviation L.L.C., or the designation LLC. The word Limited may be abbreviated as Ltd. and the word Company may be abbreviated as Co. The following suffixes are no longer acceptable: Limited Company, L.C., and LC.

Please return your document, along with a copy of this letter, within 60 days or your filing will be considered abandoned.

If you have any questions concerning the filing of your document, please call (850) 245-6984.
