Article IX
Indemnification

The company shall indemnify any member and/or officer who is or was a party, or who is threatened to be made a party, to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, including all appeals, on reason of the fact that such member and/or officer is or was a member, officer or employee of the company or is or was serving at the request of the company as a director, trustee, officer or employee of another limited liability company, corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against any and all expenses (including reasonable attorney's fees), judgments, decrees, fines, penalties and amounts paid in settlement, which were actually and reasonably incurred by such member and/or officer in connection with such action, suit or proceeding. The company shall not indemnify any member and/or officer in the event of (i) a breach of such member and/or officer's duty of loyalty to the company or its members, (ii) acts or omissions not in good faith for which involve intentional misconduct or knowing violation of the law, (iii) a transaction from which such member and/or officer derived an improper personal benefit, or (iv) acts or omissions for which indemnification is prohibited under the Florida Limited Liability Company Act, or (v) judgments, penalties, fines, and any such case where such member and/or officer shall be adjudged liable to the company. Any indemnification provided for in this Article (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the company only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the member and/or officer is proper in the circumstances because such member and/or officer had met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in this article. Such determination shall be made: (i) by the members by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of members who were not parties to such action, suit, or proceeding; or (ii) by special legal counsel, selected by the members by vote as set forth in (i) above.

The indemnification provided in this Article shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which a person indemnified may be entitled under any agreement, vote of members, or disinterested officers or otherwise, both as to action in the official capacity of such person and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be an officer or a member and shall inure to the benefit to the heirs, executors, and administrators of such person.

Article X
Amendment of Articles of Organization

The company reserves the right to amend, alter, change, or repeal any provisions contained in these Articles of Organization in the manner now or hereafter prescribed by statute and all rights conferred upon members herein and granted subject to this reservation
