The manager (referred to as "Manager") shall be elected and shall hold the office and have the responsibilities accorded to him or her by the member or members as provided in the Operating Agreement or, if there is no Operating Agreement, then as provided by Florida law.

In addition to the powers and authority of the Managers as provided above or under Florida law or under any Operating Agreement for this Limited Liability Company and as provided under Section 605 of the Florida Statutes, the Managers by both of them or by either one alone if authorized in writing by both of them shall have the authority by written resolution or other instrument to delegate to officers or other persons such rights and powers as they deem appropriate to manage and control the business and affairs of the Company. Such officers may include a President, one or more Vice Presidents, including an Executive Vice President, a Secretary and one or more Assistant Secretaries and a Treasurer. Any such officers elected or appointed shall have the same powers and authority to bind and act on behalf of the Limited Liability Company as do such officers of a corporation under Florida law unless a resolution or other instrument electing or appointing such officer or officers limits or expands the authority.
