ARTICLE VIII – Continuity:

On the death, retirement, resignation, expulsion, bankruptcy or dissolution of a member or on the occurrence of any other event which terminates the continued membership of a member in the limited liability company, the remaining members of the limited liability company shall have the right to continue the business of the limited liability company.

ARTICLE IX – Indemnification:

The Company will indemnify an individual made party to a proceeding because he is or was a manager, officer, or organizer, employee or agent of the Company against liability incurred in the proceeding if:

1. He conducted himself in good faith;
2. He reasonably believed that his conduct was in or at least not opposed to the Company's interest; and
3. In the case of any criminal proceeding, he had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful.

The indemnification and advance of expenses authorized in these articles will not be exclusive to any other rights to which any manager, officer, organizer, employee or agent may be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, or vote of members, disinterested managers or otherwise.

In addition to the foregoing, the Company will indemnify and save the organizers harmless for all acts taken by them as organizers of the Company, and will pay all costs and expenses incurred by or imposed on them as a result of the same, including compensation based on the usual charges for expenditures required of them in pursuit of the defense against account enforcing the indemnification right under these articles, and the Company releases them from all liability for any such act as organizers not involving willful or grossly negligent misconduct.

Signed on February 2nd, 2010.

Alex Hlavacek, authorized representative of the member
