ARTICLE IV PURPOSE

Section 4.1. Notwithstanding any other provisions of these articles, the Company is organized exclusively for exempt purposes under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (the "Code") or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law. The Company is operated exclusively to further the charitable purposes of its Member.

Section 4.2. The Company shall have the power, either directly or indirectly, either alone or in conjunction or cooperation with others, to do any and all lawful acts and things and to engage in any and all lawful activities which may be necessary, useful, suitable, desirable or proper for the furtherance, accomplishment, fostering or attainment of any or all of the purposes for which a Company is organized, and to aid or assist other organizations whose activities are such as to further accomplish, foster or attain any of such purposes. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Company shall exercise only such powers as are in furtherance of the exempt purposes of its Member as set forth in Section 501(c)(3) of the Code as the same now exist or as it may be hereinafter amended from time to time.

Section 4.3. No part of the net earnings of the Company shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, the Member Manager or any private individual (except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the Company affecting one or more of its purposes); and neither the Member Manager nor any private individual shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the corporate assets on dissolution of the Company.

Section 4.4. No substantial part of the activities of the Company shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Company shall not participate or intervene in (including the publication or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition of any candidate for public office.

Section 4.5. Upon the dissolution of the Company, the Member shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the Company, dispose of all of the assets of the Company to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, religious or scientific purposes, as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law), as the Member shall determine. Any of such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the court having proper jurisdiction in the county where the principal office of the Company is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE V MEMBERSHIP

Section 5.1. This Company shall have a membership consisting solely of the Member, which is exempt from taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code.

Section 5.2. The direct or indirect transfer of any membership interest in the Company to a transferee other than an organization exempt from taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code is expressly prohibited.

Section 5.3. In the event the Member ceases to be an organization exempt from taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, such Member's interest in the Company shall be forfeited and its rights in the Company shall be fully terminated within ninety (90) days from the date such Member's exemption is revoked.

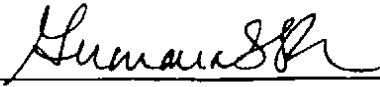

Section 5.4. The Member of the Company will expeditiously and vigorously enforce all of its rights in the Company and will pursue all legal and equitable remedies to protect its interests in the Company.

ARTICLE VI MANAGEMENT

The Company shall be a member-managed limited liability company whose member manager shall have all the powers and rights necessary, appropriate or advisable to effectuate and carry out the purposes and business of the Company, except as expressly provided in the Act.

ARTICLE VII AMENDMENTS

These Articles of Organization may be amended in the manner and with the vote provided by law and Section 501(c)(3) of the Code.
