ARTICLE IV - PURPOSE

The purposes for which the company is organized and operated is to exclusively further the exempt purpose(s) of its members.

A. The Company is organized exclusively for charitable, scientific and educational purposes as under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or corresponding section of any future federal tax code. These activities will include, but not be limited to acquiring by gifts and donations funds to be donated to other charitable entities as defined in Section 501(c)(3), and used to support, nurture and enrich its constituents through research, development, technology-related and educational activities throughout the United States and around the world.

B. To receive, maintain and accept, as assets of the company any property, whether real, personal or mixed, by way of gift, bequest, devise or purchase, from any person, firm, trust or corporation, to be held, administered and disposed in accordance with and pursuant to the provisions of the Articles of Organization; but no gift, bequest, devise or purchase of any such property shall be received or made and accepted if it is conditioned or limited in such a manner as shall require the disposition of income or principal to any organization other than a "charitable organization" or for any purpose other than a "charitable purpose" within the respective meanings of those terms as defined in Articles V and VI herein, or which would jeopardize the Federal Income Tax exemption of this company pursuant to Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as now in force or acts in amendment thereof or substitution thereof.

C. No part of the net earnings of the Company shall inure to the benefit of any director of the Company (if appointed), officer of the Company, or any private individual (except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the Company affecting one or more of its purposes); and no director, officer or any private individual shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the company assets on dissolution of the Company. Company assets may only be transferred to any nonmember, other than a section 501(c)(3) organization or governmental unit or instrumentality, in exchange for fair market value. No substantial part of the activities of the Company shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Company shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publication or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

ARTICLE V. CHARITABLE ORGANIZATION

In these Articles of Organization, and in any amendments to them, the terms "charitable organization" or "charitable organizations" shall mean corporations, limited liability companies, trusts, funds, foundations, community chests or other organizations created or organized in the United States, the District of Columbia, or any possessions of the United States, and operated exclusively for charitable purposes, no part of the net earnings of which inures or is payable to or for the benefit of any private shareholder or individual, and no substantial part of the activities of which is carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and which do not participate in, or intervene (including the publishing or distributing of statements) in any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. The organizations described in this Article shall be such as are entitled to exemption from income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as now in force or acts in amendment thereof or substitution thereof.

ARTICLE VI. CHARITABLE PURPOSES

In these Articles of Organization and any amendments thereto, the term "charitable purposes" shall mean, and shall be limited to religious, charitable, scientific, literary or educational purposes within the meaning of those words as used in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as now in force or acts in amendment thereof or substitution thereof.

ARTICLE VII - MANAGERS OR MANAGING MEMBERS

All Life Project International, LLC's members will be limited to section 501(c)(3) organizations, governmental units, or wholly owned instrumentalities of a state or political subdivision thereof. In the event one or more of the LLC's members ceases to be a 501(c)(3) organization or a governmental unit or instrumentality. This condition may be satisfied by requiring a forfeiture of such nonexempt members' interests in the LLC, or by requiring the nonexempt member(s) to sell its interests in the LLC to a section 501(c)(3) organization or governmental unit or instrumentality. The plan cannot involve a distribution of the LLC's assets to the nonexempt member, other than in exchange for fair market value. The plan should ensure that the nonexempt member's rights in the LLC are fully terminated within a reasonable time, e.g., 90 days from the date that a member ceases to be organized or operated exclusively for tax-exempt purposes under section 501(c)(3). The name and address of each Manager or Managing Member is as follows:

Title:

"MGMR" = Managing Member

Name and Address:

Life Project Charities, INC
6020 Blue Sage Road
Land O Lakes, FL 34639

Representatives: Keith Jacobs

Lewis Roberts, Jr.

ARTICLE VIII - EFFECTIVE DATE

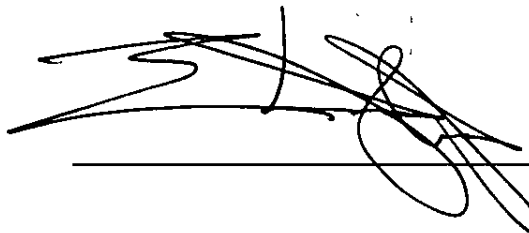

The effective date of the company shall be May 5, 2010.

ARTICLE IX - DISSOLUTION CLAUSE

Upon the dissolution of this organization, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Company assets may only be transferred to any nonmember, other than a section 501(c)(3) organization or governmental unit or instrumentality, in exchange for fair market value. Upon dissolution of the LLC, the LLC's assets will continue to be devoted to charitable purposes.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have signed these Articles of Organization as an authorized representative of the members and acknowledged them to be my act this 5th day of May, 2010.
