ARTICLE IX
Indemnification and Liability

A Manager of the Company shall not be liable to the Company or its Members for monetary damages for an act of omission in the Manager's capacity as a Manager, except that this Article IX does not eliminate or limit the liability of a Manager to the extent that the Manager is found liable for (i) a breach of the Manager's duty of loyalty to the Company or its Members; (ii) an act or omission that involves intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of the law; (iii) a transaction from which the Manager received an improper benefit, whether or not the benefit resulted from an action taken within the scope of the Manager's office; or (iv) an act or omission for which the liability of the Manager is expressly provided by an applicable statute. Any repeal or amendment of this Article IX by the Members of the Company shall be prospective only and should not adversely affect any limitation on the liability of a Manager of the Company existing at the time of such repeal or amendment. In addition to the circumstances in which the Manager of the Company is not liable as set forth in the preceding sentences, the Manager shall not be liable to the fullest extent permitted by any provision of the statutes of Florida hereafter enacted that further limits the liability of a Manager or of a Director of a corporation.

ARTICLE X
Actions of Members

Any action required by the Act or the Florida Business Corporation Act to be taken at any Annual or Special Meeting of Members, or any action which may be taken at any Annual or Special Meeting of Members, may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice, and without a vote, of a consent or consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the holder or holders of membership interest having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to take such action at a Meeting at which the holders of all membership interests entitled to vote on the action were present and voted. Prompt notice of the taking of any action by the Members without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent shall be given to those Members who did not consent in writing to the action.
