Management of the Company's business and affairs shall be vested in members.

Article V. Operating Agreement.

The Members may, from time to time, adopt, amend, alter and repeal the Operating Agreement by that percentage vote of the Members, by membership interest, set forth in the Operating Agreement or, in the absence thereof, by eighty percent (80%), provided, however: (A) the Operating Agreement and all replacements, amendments and alterations thereto shall, in all cases, be in writing; and (B) no amendment requiring an additional capital contribution from any members shall be valid without the written approval such member(s).

Article VI. Instruments and Documents Providing for the Article VII. Meetings of the Members.

Annual and special meetings of the Members shall be held at such time as may be stated or fixed in accordance with the Operating Agreement, but in no event less than every thirteen months. Failure to hold the annual meeting shall not work as a forfeiture or dissolution of the Company.

Article VIII. Voting.

Except as may be set forth in the Operating Agreement, which may grant to all or a special group of Members the right to consent, vote or agree on a per capita or other basis upon any matter, the Members shall vote in accordance with their membership interest in the Company. If any class of Members is entitled to vote thereon as a class, such written consent shall be required of the Members, by membership interest, of each class of Members entitled to vote as a class thereon and of the total shares entitled to vote thereon.

Article X. Liability of Members and Indemnification.

Section 10.02 The Members shall not be liable under any judgment, decree, or order of court, or in any other manner, for a debt, obligation or liability of the company.

Section 10.03 The Company shall indemnify against any liability incurred in any proceeding in which any individual or entity is made a party to the proceeding because he, she or it is or was an officer, manager or member if:

- (A) He or she or acted and conducted himself/herself in good faith;
- (B) He or she reasonably believed:
 - (1) in the case of conduct in his, her or its official capacity, that such conduct was in the best interest of the Company; or
 - (2) in all other cases, that his, her or its conduct was, at least, not opposed to the best interests of the Company; and
- (C) in the case of any criminal proceeding, he or she had no reasonable cause to believe that this conduct was unlawful.

Section 10.04 The Company shall advance the reasonable expenses incurred by an officer, manager or member who is a party to a proceeding if:

- (A) such officer, manager or member furnishes the Company with a written affirmation of his, her or its good-faith belief that he, she or it has met the standard of conduct required for indemnification;
- (B) such officer, manager or member furnishes the Company with a written undertaking, executed personally by him, her or it, or on his, her or its behalf, to repay the advance if it is determined that he, she or it did not meet such standard of conduct; and
- (C) a determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification.

Section 10.05 The Company shall indemnify each officer, manager and member who was wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in defense of any proceeding to which he, she or it was a party, against reasonable expenses incurred by him, her or it in connection with the proceeding.
