Dear Ms. Golden,

We are writing on behalf of our client, the above-named taxpayer, regarding your letter dated April 8, 2020 (copy enclosed).

Your letter indicates a description of the occurrence that resulted in the limited liability company's dissolution pursuant to section 605.0707(1)(c), Florida Statutes, must be contained in the document, date the dissolution was authorized and the Notice of Dissolution must contain a description of information that should be included in a written claim. Per conversation with you on April 28, 2020, we are returning the document, along with the letter as mentioned above. We noticed that the letter highlighted the Notice of LLC Dissolution is optional. You mentioned that we can just send the Articles of Dissolution For A Limited Liability Company and not include the Notice of Limited Liability Company Dissolution. The occurrence that resulted in the limited liability company's dissolution is mentioned here for your convenience and it is included on the letter. The LLC is being dissolved in accordance with the company's Operating Agreement including all investments in the company have been liquidated and all the assets have been distributed to members.

Please update your records and send us a letter confirming that the entity is now inactive.

If you have any questions, please reach out to us at (732)701-3327.

Very truly yours,
Echelon Advisors, LLC
