Plan of Merger

§607.1108(2)(c), Florida Statutes and §608.438(2)(c), Florida Statutes, respectively, authorize the merger of a Florida Profit Corporation, as the merging party, into a Florida Limited Liability Company, as the surviving party. The following Florida Profit Corporation, as the merging party, merging into the following Florida Limited Liability Company, as the surviving party, adopt this Plan of Merger in accordance with §607.1108 and §608.438, Florida Statutes, respectively.

FIRST: The sole merging party is

Huntsville Motorsports, Inc., a Florida corporation
Florida Department of State Document Number P03000032558.

SECOND: The surviving party is

Motorsports of Huntsville LLC, a Florida limited liability company
Florida Department of State Document Number L10000131860.

THIRD: The terms and conditions of the merger are as follows:

The merger's effective date is 1 January 2011 at 12:00 a.m. EST, which is not prior to, nor more than, 90 calendar days after the date the Articles of Merger are to be filed by the Florida Department of State.

The effective date, however, is subject to the merging party's integration of business operations under this Third Article of the Plan of Merger, which also will not be prior to, nor more than, 90 calendar days after the date the Articles of Merger filed by the Florida Department of State. If the surviving party has not received all governmental and private licenses, permits, and approvals necessary to operate the merging party's business in all respects as presently performed in all respects, then the merging party will continue to operate each business operation or identifiable, discrete business segment for the surviving party's benefit until the surviving party receives all required or desirable licenses, permits and approvals, at which point the merging party will cease activity and existence. In order to transfer business operation to the surviving party without disruption, the merging party will maintain all existing licenses, permits approvals, tax identification number, sales tax certificates, insurance, bonds, employees, dealership agreements, loan agreement, and other contracts and things necessary until the point that all business operations can transfer to the surviving party and operate in accordance with all laws and agreements in the surviving party's sole business judgment, at which point the surviving party will file an amendment to this Plan of Merger as an amendment to the surviving party's Articles of Organization within 14 calendar days of the transfer and, then, the merging party will cease all operations on the surviving party's behalf and cease existence. In no event will the merging party continue operation, or the surviving party file the contemplated amendment to this Plan of Merger as an amendment to the surviving party's Articles of Organization, beyond 90 days after the Articles of Merger are filed by the Florida Department of State.

The parties' economic intent is that the merging party's operations allowed under the prior paragraph are solely for the surviving party's benefit as of 12:00 a.m. EST on 1 January 2011 and that the transition period constitutes the surviving party's activities for all financial and tax reporting purposes such that taxing authorities, including the Internal Revenue Service, recognize the merger retroactively to 1 January 2011 for tax purposes, if necessary. To that end, the parties intend that the merging party will close its books as of 12:00 a.m. EST on 1 January 2011 to the extent permitted under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, unless closing the books would prevent the parties' economic intent.

All issued and outstanding stock in the merging party will be converted for a 100% membership interest in the surviving party on the effective date of the merger such that the sole shareholder of the merging party will become the sole member of the surviving party and the conversion will represent all equity, value and voting rights in the merging party for all equity, value and voting rights in the merging party. There will not be any other property, debt or cash exchanged.

B. The manner and basis of converting the rights to acquire the interests, shares, obligations or other securities of each merged party into the rights to acquire the interests, shares, obligations or other securities of the survivor, in whole or in part, into cash or other property are not applicable as there are no authorized or outstanding warrants, options or other rights to acquire the interests, shares, obligations or other securities of the merged party.

FIFTH: The surviving party is not a partnership and, therefore, there is no general partner.

SIXTH: The name and business address of the sole managing member of the surviving party, a Florida limited liability company, on the merger's effective date is Therefore, no statements under laws other than those of the State of Florida are required under this Plan of Merger.

EIGHTH: Other provisions relating to the merger are as follows:

The surviving party is a Florida limited liability company as described in the Second and Sixth Articles of this Plan of Merger. Pursuant to §608.438(4)(d), Florida Statutes, the "fair value," as defined in §608.4351, Florida Statutes, of an interest in the surviving party immediately prior to the merger is $1.00 and immediately after the merger equals the "fair value" of merging party, plus $1.00, by virtue of the fact that the surviving party has no assets or liabilities immediately prior to the merger and acquires all of the merging party's assets and liabilities by virtue of the merger as the surviving party's only assets and liabilities.

As a result of the stock for membership interests conversion described in the Fourth Article of this Plan of Merger, all perfected security interests, and all other security interests known to the merging party's sole shareholder, in the shares continue and become a lien on the membership interests in the surviving party, to the extent of and pursuant to the express security agreements validly encumbering the stock in the merging entity.
