RE: L10626

Winchester Computer Resources, Inc.

Dear Department:

I would like to request a waiver of the $400 additional fee for the late filing of the Unified Business Report.

On March 3, 2002, this corporation sustained substantial damage to their business due to an accumulation of rainwater on the roof of their facility. The roof was in the process of being repaired at the time.

ALL records were secured against damage and loss. They set up a temporary business in a nearby strip mall. All assets, including their business records were transported to a warehouse for insurance purposes. Another business, Tip Top Printing, faced the same circumstances.

This corporation acted diligently once the records were released. This corporation has always been in compliance. The circumstances were devastating to his business and he concentrated all of his efforts to continue to serve his clients.

I sincerely request that you accept the UBR as filed ($150.00) that has been paid, and that you waive the additional $400.00 charge.

Sincerely,

Dale J. Abbott
