Re: First Preferred Funding

Gina: I formed an entity by the name of First Preferred Funding, LLC last week in error using the wrong formation information. Rather than filing a correction we dissolved the entity the following day (this is entity L110000007047.

I then submitted on line to create an entity by the same name using the correct member/manager information. Subsequently I received a rejection (twice) because the name was not available. The first entity was a formal dissolution not an administrative dissolution and it is not our intent to use that entity at any time in the future.

It is our intent however, to use the second entity with the same name but for a different client/member.

It would be greatly appreciated if you would allow my filing.

Thank you.
