ARTICLE VII
Indemnification

The company shall indemnify every manager, and the manager's heirs, executors and administrators, against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by the manager, as well against any amount paid upon a judgment in connection with any action, suit, or other proceeding, civil or criminal, to which the manager may be made a party by reason of having been a manager of this limited liability company. This indemnification is being given because the manager(s) will be requested by the company to act for and on behalf of the company and for the company's benefit. This indemnification is not exclusive of other rights to which the manager(s) may be entitled. The manager(s) are entitled to the fullest indemnification allowed by the current law or as the law may be amended after the adoption of these articles.

A manager shall be liable to the company for the following actions:

- (1) Any breach of his or her duty of loyalty to the company, or to its members;
- (2) An act or omission that was taken in bad faith and which constitutes a breach of the Manager's duty to the company by an act that is grossly negligent, malicious, or intentional, as those terms are defined at law;
- (3) A transaction in which the manager benefits to the detriment of the company or its members; and
