Dear Reviewer,

On March 4th, 2011 I filed electronically to register a new company, National Appraisal Associates, LLC however was unaware that I needed to provide additional consideration as to the ownership of our existing company, National Appraisal Associates, Inc. as the names were undistinguishable pertaining to identification for the State of Florida. Please be advised that I am the sole shareholder and owner of National Appraisal Associates, Inc. and the owner and only managing member of National Appraisal Associates, LLC which can be verified by reviewing our yearly filings for NAA, Inc. showing corporation positions held and by whom and of course the fact that I am the only managing member and the filing agent for NAA, LLC. Upon receipt of this affidavit, if there are no further concerns, I can assume that the "rejection" that was placed on the original NAA, LLC will be lifted at which time we can start to transition business to that entity. Your help is greatly appreciated on this matter. Please contact me immediately should there be any further questions. I am available Monday through Friday, 8:30 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. My contact information is listed below.

Sincerely,
