ARTICLE IV – Membership:

Members, Admissions: The members of the limited liability company shall have the right to admit other members to the limited liability company. The members will determine the terms and conditions of admission.

Each member's interest in the Limited Liability Company shall be evidenced by a certificate of membership issued by the company. Transferability of the certificates of membership shall be in accordance with terms of the Operating Agreement.

On the death, retirement, resignation, expulsion, bankruptcy or dissolution of a member or on the occurrence of any other event which terminates the continued membership of a member in the limited liability company, the remaining members shall have the right to continue the business of the limited liability company.

ARTICLE V – Management:

Management. The company shall be managed by a manager or managers who shall be elected by the members of the Company.

The manager or managers shall have the right and authority to incur any debt, obligation or liability on behalf of and in the name of the Company. The manager or managers shall also hold the offices and have the responsibilities accorded to them by the members as set out in the Operating Agreement.

The number of managers of the Company may be increased or decreased from time to time as may be determined by the unanimous written consent of the members of the Company. All executive powers of the Company herein granted shall be vested in the hands of the Company manager(s). Only the manager or the managers may act for and on behalf of the Company. Each manager shall be allowed to act separately without any limitation.

The name and address of the initial managers of the Company who shall serve as the manager of the Company until such manager's successors are elected and duly qualified, is as follows:

ARTICLE VII – Capitalization:

The capital contribution of the members has an agreed value of USD 200,000.00 (Two Hundred Thousand USD) and will be paid in full by July 31st, 2011.

ARTICLE VIII – Operating Agreement:

Operating Agreement: The Operating Agreement of the Company will be executed by the member of the Company and will set forth all provisions for the affairs of the Company and the conduct of its business to the extent that such provisions are not inconsistent with the law or these Articles.

ARTICLE IX – Indemnification:

The Company will indemnify an individual made party to a proceeding because he is or was a manager, officer, or organizer, employee or agent of the Company against liability incurred in the proceeding if:

1. He conducted himself in good faith;
2. He reasonably believed that his conduct was in or at least not opposed to the Company's interest; and
3. In the case of any criminal proceeding, he had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful.

The indemnification and advance of expenses authorized in these articles will not be exclusive to any other rights to which any manager, officer, organizer, employee or agent may be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, or vote of members, disinterested managers or otherwise.

In addition to the foregoing, the Company will indemnify and save the organizers harmless for all acts taken by them as organizers of the Company, and will pay all costs and expenses incurred by or imposed on them as a result of the same, including compensation based on the usual charges for expenditures required of them in pursuit of the defense against account enforcing the indemnification right under these articles, and the Company releases them from all liability for any such act as organizers not involving willful or grossly negligent misconduct.
