Dear Ms. Saulsberry:

This acknowledges receipt of and thanks you for your letter of October 14, 2011 regarding the above captioned subject matter.

This serves to advise you that we are filing Articles of Amendment to the Articles of Incorporation of Community Association Law Group, LLC to convert the company to a professional limited liability company which is organized for the following purposes:

This professional limited liability company is organized for the following purposes:

- (a) to engage in the practice of law as a professional limited liability company;
- (b) to own real and personal property, enter into contracts and engage in any lawful business necessary for the rendering of professional law services;
- (c) to do everything necessary, proper or convenient to accomplish any of the purposes set forth in these Articles and to do every other act incidental to the corporate purposes which is not forbidden by Florida laws or by the provisions of these Articles; and
- (d) the professional limited liability company shall have all of the general and specific powers and rights granted to and conferred on a professional limited liability company by Florida law including the Florida Professional Service Corporation and Limited Liability Company Act.

Where required, the purposes of this professional limited liability company shall be carried out only through officers, employees, agents and independent contractors who are licensed or otherwise, legally qualified to render professional law services in the State of Florida. The professional limited liability company shall have as its members only other professional limited liability companies, professional corporations or individuals who themselves are duly licensed to practice law in Florida.

If there is additional information you need or action that needs to be taken on our part with respect to this matter, please do not hesitate to call.

Sincerely,

Christopher Eri
