ARTICLES OF ORGANIZATIONOF*SB HOLDINGS OF SARASOTA, LLC

The undersigned certifies that we have associated ourselves together for the purposes of becoming a limited liability company under the laws of the State of Florida, providing for the formation, rights, privileges, and immunities of limited liability companies for profit. We further declare that the following Articles shall serve as the Charter and authority for the conduct of business of the limited liability company.

ARTICLE INAME AND PRINCIPAL PLACE OF BUSINESS

The name of the limited liability company shall be SB HOLDINGS OF SARASOTA, LLC (the "Company") and the address of its principal office is 22 Links Avenue, Suite 100, Sarasota, FL 34236 and mailing address is 4191 2nd Street South, St. Cloud, MN 56301, but it shall have the power of authority to establish branch offices at any other place or places as the members may designate.

ARTICLE IIDURATION

The date when the existence of the limited liability company shall commence is July 12, 2011, as provided in Section 608.409 of the Florida limited liability company act. The Company shall exist perpetually, or until dissolved in a manner provided by law, or as provided in the Operating Agreement adopted by the members.

ARTICLE IIIPURPOSES AND POWERS

In addition to the powers authorized by the laws of the State of Florida for limited liability companies, the general nature of the business or businesses to be transacted, and which the Company is authorized to transact, shall be as follows:

1. To engage in any activity or business authorized under the Florida statutes.
2. In general, to carry on any and all incidental business; to have and exercise all the powers conferred by the laws of the State of Florida, and to do any and all things set forth in these Articles to the same extent as a natural person might or could do.

3. To purchase or otherwise acquire, undertake, carry on, improve, or develop, all or any of the business, good will, rights, assets, and liabilities of any person, firm, association, or corporation carrying on any kind of business of a similar nature to that which the Company is authorized to carry on, pursuant to the provisions of these Articles; and to hold, utilize, and in any manner dispose of the rights and property so acquired.

4. To enter into and make all necessary contracts for its business with any person, entity, partnership, association, corporation, domestic or foreign, or of any domestic or foreign state, government or governmental authority, or of any political or administrative subdivision, or department, and to perform and carry out, assign, cancel, or rescind any of such contracts.

5. To exercise all or any of the limited liability company powers, and to carry out all or any of the purposes, enumerated in these Articles and otherwise granted or permitted by law, while acting as agent, nominee, or attorney-in-fact for any persons or corporations, and perform any services under contract or otherwise for any corporation, joint stock company, association, partnership, firm, syndicate, individual, or other entity, and in this capacity or under this arrangement develop, improve, stabilize, strengthen, or extend the property and commercial interest of the property and to aid, assist, or participate in any lawful enterprise in connection with or incidental to the agency, representative, or service, and to render any other service or assistance it may lawfully do under the laws of the State of Florida, providing for the formation, rights, privileges, and immunities of limited liability companies for profit.

6. To do everything necessary, proper, advisable, or convenient for the accomplishment of any of the purposes, or the attainment of any of the objectives, or the furtherance of any of the powers set forth in these Articles, either alone or in association with others incidental or pertaining to, or going out of, or connected with its business or powers, provided the same shall not be inconsistent with the laws of the State of Florida.

The several clauses contained in this statement of the general nature of the business or businesses to be transacted shall be construed as both purposes and powers of the Company, and statements contained in each clause shall, except as otherwise expressed, be in no way limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other clause. They shall be regarded as independent purposes and powers.

Nothing contained in these Articles shall be deemed or construed as authorizing or permitting, or purporting to authorize or permit the Company to carry on any business, exercise any power, or do any act which a limited liability company may not, under Florida laws, lawfully carry on, exercise, or do.

ARTICLE IV

EXERCISE OF POWERS

All limited liability company powers shall be exercised by or under the authority of, and the business and affairs of the Company shall be managed under the direction of, the members of the Company. This Article may be amended from time to time in the Operating Agreement of the Company by a majority vote of the members of the Company.

ARTICLE VIMEMBERSHIP RESTRICTIONS

Members shall have the right to admit new members by majority consent. Contributions required of new members shall be determined as of the time of admission to the Company.

A member's interest in the Company may not be sold or otherwise transferred except with majority written consent of all members, as well as pursuant to any and all applicable provisions of the Company's Operating Agreement and Company's Comprehensive Buy-Sell Agreement, if any exist or are hereafter created and entered into. Notwithstanding the previous sentence, in the event that the Articles of Organization and/or the Company's Operating Agreement are inconsistent with the transfer of Membership interest provisions of the Company's Comprehensive Buy-Sell Agreement, if in effect, the Comprehensive Buy-Sell Agreement shall control.

On the death, retirement, resignation, expulsion, bankruptcy, or dissolution of a member, or the occurrence of any other event that terminates the continued membership of a member in the Company, the remaining members shall have the right to continue the business on majority consent of the remaining members.

ARTICLE VIIPROFITS AND LOSSES

(a) Profit Sharing. The members shall be entitled to the net profits arising from the operation of the Company business that remain after the payment of expenses of conducting the business of the Company. Each member shall be entitled to the distributive share of the profits specified as follows:

Profits shall be allocated in accordance with the Company's Capital Account balances.

Additionally, the distributive share of the profits shall be determined and paid to the members each year as determined by the members.
