ATTN: Ms. Tammy Hampton, Regulatory Specialist II
REF: W11000051151

Dear Ms. Hampton,

Pursuant to our conversation of October 11, 2011, I am enclosing the corrected forms for my application as a Limited Liability Company (LLC) in the State of Florida.

As we discussed, I mistakenly included the "Certificate of Conversion" in my original application. As I mentioned, I am not 'converting' from any other business, but applying as an individual to become an LLC for the first time.

In addition, my original application included the full "Certificate of Conversion" filing fee of $185.00, when in fact the filing fee for the "Articles of Organization for a Florida LLC" should have been a total of $160.00. As this is the case, I respectfully request a refund of the balance of $25.00. Please mail the refund to:

K.A. Blaine Whitford
7125 South Shore Drive South
South Pasadena, FL 33707

I appreciate your help in this matter and can be reached at 727-365-8102 if you have any additional questions or requirements.

Respectfully,

K.A. Blaine Whitford

We have received your document for BLAINE WHITFORD MURALS, LLC and your check(s) totaling $185.00. However, the enclosed document has not been filed and is being returned for the following correction(s):

We regret that we were unable to contact you by phone. Please return the corrected document with a letter providing us with a telephone number where you can be reached during working hours.

The Certificate of Conversion must contain the name of the other business entity immediately prior to the filing of the certificate of conversion.

The Certificate of Conversion must state the date on which, and the jurisdiction in which, the other business entity was first organized and, if changed, its jurisdiction immediately prior to the conversion.

Sections 607.1113, 608.4403, 620.2104, and 620.8914, F.S., require the certificate of conversion to be signed by the converting entity as required by applicable law. If the converting entity is a corporation, the certificate of conversion must be signed by a chairman, vice chairman, officer, director, or an incorporator. If the converting entity is a limited liability company, the certificate of conversion must be signed by a member or an authorized representative of a member. If the converting entity is a general partnership or limited liability partnership, the certificate of conversion must be signed by a general partner. If the converting entity is a limited partnership or limited liability limited partnership, the certificate of conversion must be signed by all of the general partners. If the converting entity is another type of business entity, an authorized person must sign the certificate of conversion.

Please return the corrected original and one copy of your document, along with a copy of this letter, within 60 days or your filing will be considered abandoned.

If you have any questions concerning the filing of your document, please call (850) 245-6855.
