Entity Name: NORMANDY ESTATES ASSISTED LIVING LLC

Dear Ms. Culligan,

This letter is to certify that I was the incorporator of Normandy Estates Assisted Living, Inc., a not-for-profit corporation. After incorporation, my CPA advised me that an LLC was a better legal entity for my business purpose. Therefore, I voluntarily dissolved the corporation before doing business with the public as a non-profit. I had to dissolve it because I wanted to use the name for the LLC and could not simply convert from a not-for-profit to the LLC where such conversion does not seem to be permitted by statute.

I certify further and affirm that I have no intention of revoking the dissolution. Therefore, I am releasing the name for my own use to register Normandy Estates Assisted Living LLC.
