Article V

Management of the Company shall be vested in the Members

Article VI

The Company shall have a perpetual existence.

Article VII

Any Operating Agreement and/or amendment to an Operating Agreement adopted by the Company and/or its members must be in writing and must constitute a document specifically identifiable as an Operating Agreement or an amendment thereto. In no event may an oral Operating Agreement or an amendment to an Operating Agreement be binding on the Company or any of its members.

Article VIII

(a) To the maximum extent permitted by law, subject to the limitations contained in this paragraph 8, this Company shall indemnify and advance expenses to any person, his heirs, executors and administrators, for the defense of any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative and whether formal or informal, including counsel fees actually incurred as a result of such proceeding or action or any appeal thereof, and against all fines (including any excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan), judgments and amounts paid in settlement thereof, provided that such action or proceeding be instituted by reason of the fact that such person is or was a member or manager of this Company.

(b) This Company may, at the discretion of the members and, to the extent permitted by the provisions of Chapter 608.4229, Florida Statutes, as amended from time to time, indemnify and advance expenses to any person, his heirs, executors and administrators, to the same extent as set forth in paragraph 8(a) above, provided that the underlying proceeding or action be instituted by reason of the fact that such person is or was an employee or agent of this Company, and may also indemnify and advance expenses to such person to the extent, consistent with public policy, determined by the members.

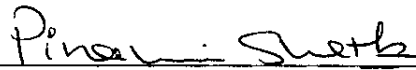

(c) The rights to indemnification and advancement of expenses set forth in paragraphs 8(a) and 8(b) are intended to be greater than those which are otherwise provided for in the Florida Statutes, are contractual between the Company and the person being indemnified, his heirs, executors and administrators, and, with respect to paragraph 8(a), are mandatory, notwithstanding a person's failure to meet the standard of conduct required for permissive indemnification under the Act, as amended from time to time. The rights to indemnification and advancement of expenses set forth in paragraphs 8(a) and 8(b) are nonexclusive of other similar rights which may be granted by law, these Articles of Organization, an operating agreement, a resolution of members, or an agreement with the Company, which means of indemnification and advancement of expenses are hereby specifically authorized.

(d) Any repeal or modification of the provisions of this paragraph 8, either directly or by the adoption of an inconsistent provision of these Articles of Organization, shall not adversely affect any right or protection set forth herein existing in favor of a particular individual at the time of such repeal or modification. In addition, if an amendment to the Florida Statutes limits or restricts in any way the indemnification rights permitted by law as of the date hereof, such amendment shall apply only to the extent mandated by law and only to activities of persons subject to indemnification under this paragraph 8 which occur subsequent to effective date of such amendment.

Article IX

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned Managing Member has executed these Articles of Organization to be effective as of this 21st day of November, 2011.
