ALICE'S PARKSIDE INVESTMENTS, LLC

May 28, 2020

Attn: Division of Corporations

The Articles of Dissolution filed on May 13, 2020, was once again filed fraudulently. Sam Jackson Cason, Sr. is not the owner or manager of Alice's Parkside Investments, LLC and does not have the right or authority to continue to dissolve this company. Again, the invalid and fraudulent Sunbiz Amendments and deeds he has recorded along with his wife Rose Cason do not give them legal ownership to this company. Again, the only two individuals who have legal rights to make any changes to this company are the legitimate Managers, Bart E Cason and Daniel J Croley, Jr.

On May 15, 2020, we appeared in Alachua County Court for Case No. 2020-CA-01115 Alice's Parkside Investments, LLC vs. Sam Jackson Cason, Sr, Rose Camilia Cason and Sam Jackson Cason, Jr. before Honorable Judge Monica Brasington. We were seeking an Order of Temporary Injunctive Relief in hopes of stopping all the submission and recording of fraudulent documents.

The Judge ruled in our favor and ordered that the defendants stop interfering with Alice's Parkside Investments, LLC, which included no more filing of documents to Department of State, Division of Corporations to include Sunbiz. Attached you will find a copy of this Order Granting Plaintiff's Motion for Temporary Injunctive Relief. I am in hopes this will be the last time we have to file a Revocation of Dissolution.

Respectfully,

Wendy Carter, Registered Agent
of Alice's Parkside Investments, LLC.
