ARTICLE VI
Admission of additional members

This limited liability company may not admit new members or issue additional member interest without the unanimous consent or vote of the board of managers and the prior written approval of two third of all outstanding member interests (hereafter, a "majority interest of the members"). Capital contributions required of all new members shall be determined by the board of managers at the time of their admission to this limited liability company.

Except as expressly permitted in the regulations of this limited liability company, no member may sell, assign, pledge or otherwise transfer or encumber (collectively "transfer") all or any part of its member interest in this limited liability company, or suffer the same to be subject, directly or indirectly, to transfer by operation of law, as a result of such member's divorce or marital separation, bankruptcy, court order or otherwise, and no transferee of all or any of the member interest of a member shall be admitted as a substituted member, without, in each such event, having obtained the unanimous consent or vote of the board of managers and prior written approval of a majority in interest of the members (without including the vote, consent or approval of the transferring member).

ARTICLE VII
Right of members to continue business

The members of this limited liability company may continue the business of this limited liability company following the death, retirement, resignation, expulsion, bankruptcy or dissolution of a member or the occurrence of any other event that terminates the continued membership of a member in his limited liability company if, within ninety (90) days after the occurrence of such event, the business of this limited liability company is continued by the agreement of all the remaining members.

ARTICLE VIII

This limited liability company has a board of managers and the business and affairs of this limited liability company shall be managed by or under the direction of its board of managers. No member of the limited liability company, in such capacity, shall have any right or authority to act for to bind this limited liability company.

The board of managers of this limited liability company shall initially consist of one (1). The number of members of the board of managers may be either increased or diminished from time to time as provided in the regulations of this limited liability company but shall never be less than one (1).
