ARTICLE VII

Transferability of Membership Interests. No members shall have the right to assign their membership interests in the Company without the written agreement of all of the membership interests, unless otherwise provided in the Company's Operating Agreement. If the assignment is not approved by all of the membership interests, the assignee shall have no right to become a member, to participate in the management of the Company, or to exercise any other rights or powers of a member. The assignee shall merely be entitled to receive the share of profits and other distributions and the allocation of income, gain, loss deduction, credit or similar item to which the assignor was entitled, to the extent assigned.

ARTICLE VIII

Distribution of Profits. Unless otherwise provided in the Company's Operating Agreement, there shall not be any distribution of profits unless each separate distribution is approved by the affirmative vote of members who own more than 50% of the membership interest of the Company. The majority of members shall have complete discretion on when and if to approve any distribution of profits.

ARTICLE IX

Amendment of Articles. These Articles of Organization shall be amended as follows: every proposed amendment to these Articles of Organization shall require the approval by the Manager, whereupon it shall be proposed to all the Members, and, for adoption, shall require the approval at a Member's meeting by a majority of the members entitled to vote thereon; alternatively, a majority of the Members may sign a written statement adopting the proposed Amendment to these Articles of Organization.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have signed these Articles of Organization as a member of the Company and acknowledged them to be my act this 25 day of April, 2012.
