To Whom It May Concern,

I was told to write this letter regarding the filing of LLC paperwork I submitted last week. I was told the LLC name I filed for was too similar to a recently dissolved corporation name. However, I own the S-corp that was recently voluntarily dissolved. I filed for voluntarily dissolution right before I filed for the new LLC.

I have no intentions of reactivating Event Valet, Inc. as the S-corp is more than I need at this given time. The LLC is a much more fitting option for what I do. Below is a summary of my old dissolved company and the document number for the LLC I filed for last week. I just need to get this paper work pushed through as soon as possible so I can have this all finalized and ready to go. Thank you so much for your help!
