ARTICLE IV. MANAGERS

The Limited Liability Company shall be managed by its Managers. The initial Manager of the Limited Liability Company is as follows and the address for such Manager is the principal office of the Limited Liability Company set forth in Article II:

Lauster J. Adkins, Jr.

ARTICLE V. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY; INDEMNIFICATION

To the fullest extent permitted by Florida Limited Liability Company Act, as the same exists or as may hereafter be amended from time to time, a manager of the Limited Liability Company shall not be personally liable to the Limited Liability Company or its members for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a manager. If the Florida Limited Liability Company Act is amended to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of managers, then the liability of each manager of the Limited Liability Company shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the Florida Limited Liability Company Act, as so amended.

The Limited Liability Company shall indemnify, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, any manager or officer of the Limited Liability Company who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (a "Proceeding") by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a manager, officer, employee or agent of the Limited Liability Company or is or was serving at the request of the Limited Liability Company as a director, officer, manager, member, employee or agent of another corporation, limited liability company, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with any such Proceeding. The Limited Liability Company shall be required to indemnify a person in connection with a Proceeding initiated by such person only if the Proceeding was authorized by the Limited Liability Company's managers.

The Limited Liability Company shall have the power to indemnify, to the extent permitted by the Florida Limited Liability Company Act, as it presently exists or may hereafter be amended from time to time, any officer, member, employee or agent of the Limited Liability Company who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any Proceeding by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a manager, member, officer, employee or agent of the Limited Liability Company or is or was serving at the request of the Limited Liability Company as a director, officer, manager, member, employee or agent of another corporation, limited liability company, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with any such Proceeding.

Neither any amendment nor repeal of this Article, nor the adoption of any provision of these Articles of Organization inconsistent with this Article, shall eliminate or reduce the effect of this Article in respect of any matter occurring, or any cause of action, suit or claim accruing or arising or that, but for this Article, would accrue or arise, prior to such amendment, repeal or adoption of an inconsistent provision.

ARTICLE VI. EFFECTIVE DATE

These Articles of Organization shall be effective as of the date of filing.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned, being a duly authorized representative of a member of the Limited Liability Company, has hereby executed these Articles of Organization as of the 16th day of October, 2012.

In accordance with Section 608.408(3), Florida Statutes, the execution of this document constitutes an affirmation under the penalties of perjury that the facts stated herein are true. The Authorized Member Representative hereby affirms and acknowledges that any false information submitted in a document to the Department of State constitutes a third degree felony, as provided in Section 817.155, Florida Statutes:
