6. Capital Contributions.

The members may contribute capital to the Company in the manner prescribed by the Company's operating agreement and as it may be amended from time to time in accordance with its terms.

7. Members

The Company shall have at least one member at all times and may admit additional members upon the prior, unanimous written agreement of all then-existing members or as the Company's operating agreement may otherwise provide.

8. Continuity of Business

On the death, retirement, resignation, expulsion, bankruptcy, or dissolution of a member, or on the occurrence of any other event that terminates the continued membership of a member in the Company, or upon any other event that, under the Act, would result in dissolution of the Company, the business of the Company may be continued and the Company will not be dissolved without the written consent the Company's remaining members.

9. Management

The Company will be managed by one or more managers appointed by the members in accordance with the terms of the operating agreement. As such, the Company will be manager-managed. The managers will be designated as the president, secretary, and treasurer of the Company, and may also be designated as vice presidents, assistant secretaries, and assistant treasurers, and may have the authority normally associated with these positions under corporate law or as otherwise described in the Company's operating agreement. The Company may also
