Good Afternoon Ms. McKnight,

I hope you're doing well this morning and that you're having a good week.

Not sure if you remember our conversation in regards to an incorrect annual report having been filed on my company. You gave us information about how to correct it online by filing an amended report which, we have already done.

You also recommended that we send you a 'Statement' that you would scan and post on our file as an added document with those details.

Attached please find that 'Statement'.

Please be sure to let me know if you have any questions or if you need anything further.

Thank you very much for your time and attention.
