To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing because I formed the above corporation on October 11, 2012 and later lent in a Certificate of Conversion with the required fees to you to change the corporation to an LLC (Union Siti, LLC). The I discovered that the Certificate of Conversion was not approved by going online and then called your offices to find out why. I was told that there was a signature missing and that the documents were being returned to me to sign and that they had gone out on October 31, 2012.

Today I called your offices because I still had not received the documents to sign and again was told that they had gone out the 31st of October. I know it was my fault but I am in desperate need of the approval of the registration of the LLC so I am sending a new set of documents signed. You should have the check which I sent with the original documents.

I hope you can help me in this matter as I need to sign a lease for our business location and cannot do so until the LLC is registered. I am enclosing a copy of the rejection form W12000055225 along with the new signed documents.

Sincerely,

Aliex Martinez
