SUBJECT: AUTOMOBILIA, LLC
Ref. Number: W12000045159

We have received your document for AUTOMOBILIA, LLC and your check(s) totaling $185.00. However, the enclosed document has not been filed and is being returned for the following correction(s):

The name designated in your document is unavailable since it is the same as, or it is not distinguishable from the name of an existing entity. Section 608.406, Florida Statutes, was amended effective July 1, 2007, to require the name of a limited liability company to be distinguishable from the names of all other filings filed with the Division of Corporations, except for fictitious name registrations and general partnership registrations.

Please select a new name and make the correction in all the appropriate places. One or more words may be added to make the name distinguishable from the one presently on file. Adding of Florida or Florida to the end of the name is not acceptable. A search for name availability can be made on the Internet through the Division's records at www.sunbiz.org.

Please note the name of a limited liability company must end with the words "Limited Liability Company," the abbreviation "L.L.C.", or the designation "LLC". The word "Limited" may be abbreviated as "Ltd." and the word "Company" may be abbreviated as "Co." The following suffixes are no longer acceptable: "Limited Company", "L.C.", and "LC".

The document number of the name conflict is K96658 (AUTOMOBILIA, INC.).

Sections 607.1113, 608.4403, 620.2104, and 620.8914, F.S., require the certificate of conversion to be signed by the converting entity as required by applicable law. If the converting entity is a corporation, the certificate of conversion must be signed by a chairman, vice chairman, officer, director, or an incorporator. If the converting entity is a limited liability company, the certificate of conversion must be signed by a member or an authorized representative of a member. If the converting entity is a general partnership or limited liability partnership, the certificate of conversion must be signed by a general partner. If the converting entity is a limited partnership or limited liability limited partnership, the certificate of conversion must be signed by all of the general partners. If the converting entity is another type of business entity, an authorized person must sign the certificate of conversion.

Please list the complete principal office address.

Please return your document, along with a copy of this letter, within 60 days or your filing will be considered abandoned.

If you have any questions concerning the filing of your document, please call (850) 245-6094.

Re: Filings for LLCs

Dear Sir or Madam:

Pursuant to the direction of my client, Lucinda L. Lewis, and my discussions with Joey Bryan and other Regulatory Specialists at the Division of Corporations, I am pleased to enclose corrected filings for two LLCs that were initially rejected. It is my understanding that the names of the new LLCs that my client initially attempted to obtain were already taken, so she is now filing these corrected documents. She has altered the names by adding "II" to the name of each LLC. (For instance, Automobilia, LLC is now "Automobilia II, LLC," and Archive Productions, LLC is now "Archive Productions II, LLC.")

I hope these corrected documents will now be filed to complete the conversion process. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me at (941) 364-2402, or you may call my client directly at the number provided on the enclosed corrected forms. Thank you.

Best Regards,
