ARTICLES OF ORGANIZATION
of Judah, LLC

Article 1.

The name of the limited liability company is Judah, LLC.

Article 2.

This limited liability company is formed for the purpose of engaging in lawful activity for which limited liability companies may be formed under the Florida Limited Liability Company Law pursuant to Chapter 608, Florida Statutes.

Article 3.

The limited liability company shall initially be managed by the two individuals listed below and no individual member has the authority or power to act for or on behalf of the limited liability company, to do any act that would be binding on the limited liability company, or to incur expenditures on behalf of the limited liability company. A principal manager will be selected by the members of the limited liability company and he is hereby authorized to manage the day-to-day business affairs of the limited liability company in line with directions and instructions conferred upon him by all of the members. Other members may join the limited liability company in the future, but membership requires the affirmative vote of all present members.

Article 4.

Upon approval of all of the members, the limited liability company shall:

- (a) Sell, exchange, lease, mortgage, pledge or otherwise transfer all or substantially all of the assets of the limited liability company.
- (b) Incur indebtedness by the limited liability company in other than the ordinary course of business.
- (c) Alienate, lease, or encumber immovable property of the limited liability company.

The affirmative vote of all of the members shall be required for any act of the principal manager, other than those duties that would qualify as day-to-day business affairs. Each member shall be entitled to a single vote on all matters for which members may vote.
