Dear Ms. Culligan:

I am the president of Beltre Automotive Service Inc. I have also filed to incorporate Beltre Automotive Service LLC. That filing has been returned because of the similarity in names.

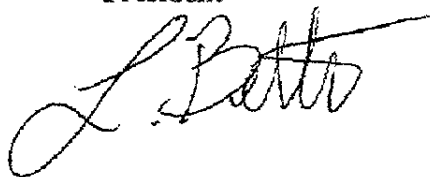

Because the person that advised me that I should incorporate and filed the incorporation papers failed to advise me that I had to file an annual report before May 1 of each year, the annual report was not filed on time resulting in an additional annual report fee of $400 plus the regular annual report fee.

I have decided to dissolve the original corporation and form another LLC corporation under the same name of Beltre Automotive Service.

In addition, by way of this letter, I authorize the person who does my accounting, Andrew L. Emmons, to discuss any and all matters regarding this corporation.

Sincerely,

Lenin Beltre
President
