ARTICLE V.

Management. Management of the Company's business and affairs shall be vested in the members.

ARTICLE VI.

Liability of Members and Indemnification.

- (A) A member is liable to the Company only for the difference between the amount of the member's contributions to capital which have been actually made and the amount, if any, which is stated in these Articles of Organization, the Operating Agreement or any other contract to which such member is a party and pursuant to which such a member is obligated to make the contribution, whether currently due or arising in the future.

- (B) The members shall not be liable under any judgment, decree, or order of court, or in any other manner, for a debt, obligation or liability of the Company.
- (C) The Company shall indemnify against any liability incurred in any proceeding, in which any individual or entity is made a party to the proceeding because he, she or it is or was a member or manager of the Company if such individual:
- (1) acted and conducted himself/herself in good faith;
 - (2) reasonably believed:
 - (a) in the case of conduct in his, her or its official capacity, that such conduct was in the best interest of the Company
 - (b) in all other cases, that his, her or its was, at least, not opposed to the best interests of the Company.
 - (3) in the case of any criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe that this conduct was unlawful.
- (D) The Company shall advance the reasonable expenses incurred by a manager or member of the Company who is a party to a proceeding if:

 - (2) such manager or member furnishes the Company with a written undertaking, executed personally by him, her or it, or on his, her or its behalf, to repay the advance if it is determined that he, she or it did not meet such standard of conduct; and
 - (3) a determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification.
- (E) The Company shall indemnify each manager or member who was wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in defense of any proceeding to which he, she or it was a party, against reasonable expenses incurred by him, her or it in connection with the proceeding.
- (F) A manager or member of the Company who is or was a party to a proceeding as described in this section may apply for indemnification to the court conducting such proceeding or to another court of competent jurisdiction.

ARTICLE VII.

Operating Agreement. The members may, from time to time, adopt, amend, alter and repeal an Operating Agreement for the Company (the "Operating Agreement") by that percentage vote of the members by membership interest as may be set forth in the Operating Agreement or, in the absence thereof, by eighty percent (80%) vote of the members by membership interest, provided that, in all cases: (1) the Operating Agreement and all replacements, amendments and alterations thereto shall be in writing; and (2) no amendment requiring an additional capital contribution from any member shall be valid without the written approval such member.

Instruments and documents providing for the acquisition, mortgage, or disposition of property of the Company shall be valid and binding upon the Company only if they are executed by the members; provided, however, the members may, in accordance with these Articles of Organization and the Operating Agreement of the Company, elect one member to execute such documents.

ARTICLE IX.

Meetings of the Members. Annual and special meetings of the members shall be held at such time as may be stated or fixed in accordance with the Operating Agreement of the Company but, in no event, less than every thirteen (13) months. Failure to hold the annual meeting shall not work as a forfeiture or dissolution of the Company

ARTICLE X.

Voting. Except as set forth in an Operating Agreement, which may grant to all or a special group of members the right to consent, vote or agree on a per capita or other basis upon any matter, the members shall vote in accordance with their capital account interest in the Company. Unless otherwise provided in these Articles of Organization or the Operating Agreement, a majority of the members, by capital account, entitled to vote shall constitute a quorum at the meeting of members. If a quorum is present, the affirmative vote of a majority of the members, by capital account, represented at the meeting and entitled to vote on the subject matter shall be the act of the members, unless the vote of a greater proportion or number or voting by classes is required by these Articles of Organization or the Operating Agreement. If a quorum is not represented at any meeting of the members, such meeting may be adjourned for a period not to exceed sixty (60) days at any one adjournment.

ARTICLE XI.

Action by Members without a Meeting. Unless the Operating Agreement provides otherwise, any action to be taken at any annual or special meeting of members of the Company, or any action which may be taken at any annual or special meeting of such members, may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice, and without a vote, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the members, by capital account, having not less than a minimum interest in the Company that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all members entitled to vote thereon were present and voted. If any class of members is entitled to vote thereon as a class, such written consent shall be required of the members, by capital account, of each class of members entitled to vote as a class thereon and of the total shares entitled to vote thereon.

ARTICLE XII.

Unless approved in the foregoing manner, a transferee or assignee of a Member's interest shall only be entitled to receive the share of profits or other compensation by way of income and the return of the contributions to which the transferring or assigning Member would otherwise be entitled. Except as set forth in Article IV, no member shall be entitled to withdraw from the Company except as expressly set forth in the Operating Agreement.
