A. The Company will indemnify an individual made a party to a proceeding because he is or was a manager, officer, organizer, employee or agent of the Company against liability incurred in the proceeding if:

1. He conducted himself in good faith;

be exclusive to any other rights to which any manager, officer, organizer, employee or agent may be entitled under any agreement, vote of Members or disinterested managers or otherwise. E. In addition to the foregoing, the Company will indemnify and save the organizers harmless for all acts taken by them as organizers of the Company, and will pay all costs and expenses incurred by or imposed on them as a result of the same, including compensation based on the usual charges for expenditures required of them in pursuit of the defense against any liability arising on the account of acting as organizers or on the account enforcing the indemnification right under this article, and the Company releases them from all liability for any such act as organizers not involving willful or grossly negligent misconduct.
