Subject: Second submission of dissolution papers

Dear Registration Section,

On January 9th I sent you a package identical with this one, a dissolution of Sun Arrow Records, LLC and with a check enclosed. As of today it is still "out for delivery" and the Post Office, although they are still receiving pings cannot locate the package. Therefore, I have duplicated the package and will send this one by Overnight mail instead of Priority.

If you should receive the initial package first, and use that for dissolution, simply mark the second package 'return to sender' or just destroy the enclosed check. However, my experience with the postal service is that there is little chance they will ever find it, therefore I sent it all again.

I have also attached a copy of the certification and seal sent to me at the creation of Sun Arrow Records, LLC. to make sure I got all those numbers copied correctly.

Thank you for your assistance.

Sincerely
