ARTICLE V

Each member shall make additional capital contributions to the company only on the majority consent of all the members.

ARTICLE VI

No additional members shall be admitted to the company except with the majority written consent of the members of the company and on such terms and conditions as shall be determined by majority consent of the members. A member may transfer his or her interest in the company as set forth in the regulations of the company, but the transferee shall have no right to participate in the management of the business and affairs of the company or become a member unless a majority of the members of the company approve of the proposed transfer by written consent.

ARTICLE VII

The company shall be dissolved on the death, bankruptcy, or dissolution of a member, or on the occurrence of any other event that terminates the continued membership of a member in the company, unless the business of the company is continued by the consent of a majority of the remaining members, provided there are at least two remaining members.

ARTICLE VIII

The company shall be managed by a member in accordance with regulations adopted by the members for the management of the business and affairs of the company. These regulations may contain any provisions for the regulation and management of the affairs of the company not inconsistent with law of these articles of organization.
