ARTICLE SEVEN

The Members are authorized to make regulations that shall govern the Company and to amend them from time to time.

ARTICLE EIGHT

After the initial membership, additional members may not be admitted except on the written consent of a majority of the existing members. A member may not transfer its interest without written consent of a majority of the remaining members. In the event of an Assignment or if a member ceases to have an interest in the Company, the Company shall still continue. The remaining members of the limited liability company shall continue the business on the death, retirement, resignation, expulsion, bankruptcy, or dissolution of a member or the occurrence of any other event which terminates the continued membership of a member in the limited liability company.

ARTICLE NINE

The purpose of the Company shall be to such extent as a limited liability company organized under the Florida Limited Liability Company Act Law of this state may now or hereafter lawfully do, either as principal or agent and either alone or in connection with other corporations, firms, or individuals, all and everything necessary, suitable, convenient, or proper for, or in connection with, or incident to, the accomplishment of any of the purposes or the attainment of any one or more of the objects herein enumerated, or designed directly or indirectly to promote the interests of this Company, or to enhance the value of its properties; and in general to do any and all things and exercise any and all powers, rights, and privileges, which a limited liability company may now or hereafter be organized to do or to exercise under the laws governing limited liability companies of this state or under any act amendatory thereof, supplemental thereto, or substituted therefore, or to otherwise engage in any lawful activity either within or without the State of Florida. The Company may buy, convey, sell, lease, rent, encumber, mortgage, deal in or otherwise dispose of real or personal property, or any other lawful business activity without limitation. To do any and all other acts and things as are necessary or convenience to the attainment of the purposes of this Company and any of them, to the same extent as natural persons lawfully might or could do in any part of the world, insofar as such acts are permitted to be done by a Company organized under the Limited Liability Company Act of this state.

413000278024

ARTICLE TEN
