Purposes: The purposes for which this limited liability company is formed are:

To assist in fulfilling the purposes of Providence Extension Ministries, Inc., ("PEM") a nonprofit corporation exempt from Federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (the "Code") and in so doing, to the extent consistent with the purposes of PEM, to help parents continue a home-based education, grades seven through twelve; to equip students to impact their world for Christ; to locate and secure tutors to meet regularly with home schooled children in small classes; and to become a recognized and accepted model of Christian educational ministry to the glory of God, known for training students to think as freemen, rationally and Biblically specifically and, generally, to receive contributions and grants from any and all sources (except from federal, state and local government); to receive, hold, invest and administer property and to make contributions to other charitable organizations consistent with Section 501(c)(3) of the Code; to promote charitable endeavors consistent with Florida law, these Articles and the bylaws of the Corporation; to qualify as an organization exempt from Federal income taxation under section 501(c)(3) of the Code, as amended, its regulations or the corresponding provision of any applicable future United States Internal Revenue Law or regulations; for any and all other lawful purpose or purposes for which a limited liability company may be organized under the Florida law, so long as such powers and purposes are permitted within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Code and are consistent with the purposes of PEM.

No Inurement, etc.: No part of the net earnings of the limited liability company shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to any private individual or entity, (except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the limited liability company affecting one or more of its purposes), and no private individual or entity shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the limited liability company's assets on dissolution of the limited liability company. No substantial part of the activities of the limited liability company shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the limited liability company shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publication or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the limited liability company shall not conduct or carry on any activities not permitted to be conducted or carried on by an organization exempt from taxation under section 501(c)(3) of the Code, or by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Code.

Dedication of Assets: Upon the dissolution of the limited liability company, the assets thereof shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the limited liability company, distribute and transfer all of the assets of the limited liability company to PEM so long as PEM is then an organization exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code and a public charity under Section 509(a) of the Code, exclusively for the purposes of PEM, or if PEM is not then exempt from federal income taxation under Code Section 501(c)(3) and is not then a public charity under Code Section 509(a), then to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Code as the member shall determine. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the principal office of the limited liability company is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
