To Whom It May Concern,

September 4, 2014

This correspondence comes to your attention with regards to: The Grace Group III, LLC, L14000036007 and the dissolution of my company that was not warranted or requested by me as the owner.

This is a great concern to me that someone can dissolve your business at no cost via internet with no re-course.

Whether this was an error or a prank by some individual, it was never instructed to be done by me the owner.

Now, I have a cost incurred of 100.00 to correct something I never requested and no recourse made available through your entity.

As the owner of the business, I have to submit any changes in writing and pay for any changes submitted.

How is this balanced or fair?

I expect that something be done about this situation as I am abiding by the instructions given to me by your personnel, but for the record there are to be no changes made to my business unless submitted in writing by one of the individuals listed in authority of this business. I expect that this request be adhered to as it is costing me financially.

Please see by the documents attached that the request for re-instatement along with the 100.00 and 30.00 for certified copy payment has been submitted along with the amendment removing Bianca Tilly and adding Shirley Pryor, the 25.00 fee for that is also included.

My prayer is that you will re-assess your current system and make changes that will safeguard the general public, by my experience.

Thanking you in advance for attention to this matter.

Respectfully,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, reading "Gail Bryant". The signature is written in black ink and is positioned above the printed name and title.
