Article X. INDEMNIFICATION

Other provisions for the regulations of the internal affairs of the limited liability company are:

1. The Company shall indemnify any individual made a party to a proceeding because he is or was a manager, officer, organizer, employee or agent of the Company against liability incurred in the proceeding if:
 - a. He conducted himself in good faith;
 - b. He reasonably believed that his conduct was in or at least not opposed to the Company's best interest; and
 - c. In the case of any criminal proceeding, he had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful.
2. Indemnification shall also be provided for an individual's conduct with respect to an employee benefit plan if the individual reasonably believed his conduct to be in the interest of the participants in and beneficiaries of such plan.

3. The Company shall pay for or reimburse the reasonable expenses incurred by a manager, officer, organizer, employee or agent of the Company who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of the proceeding if:
- d. The individual furnishes the Company a written affirmation of his good faith belief that he has met the standard of conduct described herein;
 - e. The individual furnishes the Company a written undertaking executed personally or on his behalf to repay the advance of it is ultimately determined that he did not meet the standard of conduct; and
 - f. A determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under the law.
 - g. The undertaking required by this paragraph shall be an unlimited general obligation, but need not be secured and may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment.
4. The indemnification and advance of expense authorized herein shall not be exclusive to any other rights to which any manager, officer, organizer, employee or agent may be entitled under any Operating Agreement, by-law, agreement, vote of members or disinterest managers or otherwise. The Articles of Organization shall not be interpreted to limit in any manner the indemnification or right to advancement for expenses of an individual who would otherwise be entitled thereto. These Articles of Organization shall be interpreted as mandating indemnification and advancement of expenses to the extent permitted by law.
5. In addition to the foregoing, the Company shall indemnify and save the organizers harmless for all acts taken by them as organizers of the Company, and shall pay all costs and expenses incurred by or imposed upon them as a result of the same, including compensation based upon the usual charges for expenditures required of them in pursuit of the defense against any liability arising on the account of acting as organizers or on account of enforcing the indemnification right hereunder, and the Company releases them from all liability for any such act as organizers not involving willful or grossly negligent misconduct.
