Dear Ms. Culligan:

You wrote to my lawyer, Richard Breit, by e-mail on June 11, 2014 advising him that I could not form American Disability Group, LLC since American Disability Group, Inc. (Document Number P14000049253) already existed and the names were indistinguishable. You advised if the principals are the same in both entities, we could send a letter or affidavit advising you of this association and that the company would be allowed to be formed. Please consider this to be the letter seeking to satisfy that requirement.

I formed American Disability Group, Inc. on June 4 thinking that I would use a corporation to begin my business. After consultation with advisors, I decided to form a limited liability company through which to operate the business instead of the corporation. I am a principal of both companies and, as president of the corporation, I authorize the formation of the limited liability company with substantially the same name as the corporation.

If you need any further information or documentation, please contact my attorney, Richard H. Breit, at 954.452.1144 or rbreit@rhhbpa.com. Thank you.

Anthony A. Galvez, II
President of American Disability Group, Inc.
