Article VII
Admission of New Members

Members of the Company have the right to admit new members. Members may admit to the Company additional members to participate in the profits, losses, available cash flow, and ownership of the assets of the Company on such terms as are determined by all of the members. Admission of any such additional members requires the written consent of all members then having any ownership interest in the Company. Any additional members are allocated gain, loss, income or expense by the method provided in the Regulations of the Company, and if no method is specified, then it may be permitted by the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

Article VIII
Continuation of Business

The remaining members of the Company have the right to continue the business on the death, retirement, resignation, bankruptcy or dissolution of a member or the occurrence of any other event that terminates the continued membership of a member in the Company. The business may be continued only on the unanimous consent of the remaining members.

In Witness Whereof, the undersigned have executed these Articles of Organization on this 26 day of November, 2014 at Lake County, Florida. In accordance with Section 608.408(3), Florida Statutes, the execution of this instrument constitutes an affirmation under the penalties of perjury that the facts stated herein are true.
