RE: 3rd St Publishing LLC
Document Number L15000123999

Dear Ms. Varnadore,

I have become aware of a fraudulent individual attaching themselves to a prior LLC I owned and need to ensure that this problem is corrected. This individual is not known to me, reinstated an administratively dissolved company, made themselves CEO, and then entered into business agreements without my knowledge. I received a bill from ATT for over $4,900 and not sure what else this person did.

The LLC was formed in 2015. I did not ever use the company but paid the annual corporation fees through 2019. I did not pay the fees in 2020 since I was not using the company and the LLC was administratively dissolved in approximately September 2020. It appears that in December 2020 an individual who used the name Maxwell Lartery reinstated the company without my knowledge and then opened an ATT account in January 2021.

I have paid the fee to formally dissolve the LLC just today. I do not know who this person is and fear what else they may have done. I need to do everything I can to make sure this company is completely shut down and no credit given. I had no idea that this type of scam was even possible using the FL Division of Corporations website.

Thank you,

Christina M. Dorta
