We have received your document for ISLAND GLOW INVESTMENTS, LLC and your check(s) totaling $130.00. However, the enclosed document has not been filed and is being returned for the following correction(s):

Florida law requires any business entity serving in the capacity of a registered agent to have an active registration or filing on our records.

If your business entity does not intend to transact business until January 1st of the upcoming calendar year, you may wish to revise your document to include an effective date of January 1st. If you do not list an effective date of January 1st, your business entity will become effective this calendar year and it will be required to file an annual report and pay the required annual report fee for the upcoming calendar year this coming January, which is merely weeks away. By listing an effective date of January 1st, the entity's existence will not begin until January 1st of the upcoming year and will, therefore, postpone the entity's requirement to file an annual report and pay the required annual report filing fee until the following calendar year.

Please return the corrected original and one copy of your document, along with a copy of this letter, within 60 days or your filing will be considered abandoned.

If you have any questions concerning the filing of your document, please call (850) 245-6052.

Good morning Ms. Herring,

Please accept the following in response to your letter dated October 29, 2015 in reference to the registration of Island Glow Investments, LLC.

* Your letter states our filing was rejected because our registered agent did not have an active corporate registration in your database. However, our registered agent is not a corporation; therefore, he would not be registered as such. The registered agent is an individual and the designations following his name are his trade title. He is a CPA (certified public accountant) and a PA (public accountant). The PA at the end of his name does not refer to a corporation or association.

If you have any further questions on any of the above written, please do not hesitate to contact me at (305) 364-9952.

Kindest regards,

Alexandra D. Salvador, Esq.
General Counsel
