Dear Mrs. Brown,

It was a pleasure speaking with you this morning regarding the registration of our new Limited Liability Corporation for our business. Pursuant to our conversation, this letter is being faxed to you to help establish that we, Harris Meadery, are indeed the owners of the previously registered trademark in the State of Florida. Both myself, John Glen Harris, and my wife, Melissa Mang-Harris, are the same exact principles as the registrants of the Florida and Federal Trademark for our business, Harris Meadery of Orange Park, FL. We would be happy to provide you with any further information that you would like. I am attaching a copy of the email you'd sent to us as requested.

Sincerely,

John Harris, Owner
Harris Meadery
