Dear Ms. Brown,

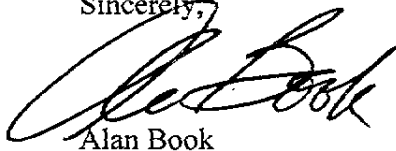

I am writing this notarized letter in accordance with my understanding of the response to our filing JG Financial Services, LLC last week. Your E-mail dated March 8, 2016 has a letter number: 160308104046-500282946065 and is enclosed

Several years ago, we incorporated JGAB Financial Services Inc. We filed and paid the annual reports. We the filed and received a name change from JGAB to JG. The name JG (stood for Julia Gonzalez) and AB (stood for Allen Book). We both have had many serious medical issues causing very little, if any, corporate transactions. Bottom line is, unfortunately' we overlooked the filing date. It is clear that we are being punished for late filing. In my case, I am recovering from major heart surgery and have given up my office. Julia has had osteopathic problems, many broken bones, and was on Federal Disability. Enough about our physical ailments. I just moved to Florida in 2016 and finally feel that we could go back to doing business. Now I discovered that the punishment is $ 900. That is more money than we made in the past several years and certainly more than we have in available funds.

I sent in $ 130.00 hoping we could use JG Financial Services LLC and, should you approve the LLC name, we do attest to the fact that we have no intention of restarting JG Financial Services, Inc as a corporate entitiy

Please give us some consideration since we do want to build an organization in this state.

Sincerely,

Alan Book
