FOURTH: This statement of authority grants or sets limitations of authority on all persons having the status or position of a person in a company, whether as a member, transferee, manager, officer or otherwise or to a specific person on the following:

1. The Managers of the Company may not execute an instrument, selling, encumbering or otherwise creating any interest in real property held in the name of the company, without the consent of the Members as more fully provided for by the Company's Operating Agreement. Notwithstanding, such limitation will not extend to the purchase or acquisition of real estate property, for which the Manager shall be fully authorized and empowered to do, without the consent of the Members.
2. The Managers of the Company may not sell all or substantially all of the assets of the Company without the consent of the Members as more fully provided for the Company's Operating Agreement.
3. The Managers of the Company may not contract for any indebtedness above $10,000 per single transaction and $25,000 in the aggregate for a single given year, without the consent of the Members as more fully provided for by the Company's Operating Agreement.

The execution of this statement constitutes an affirmation under the penalties of perjury that the facts stated herein are true.

I am aware that any false information submitted in a document to the Department of State constitutes a third degree felony as provided for in s.817.155, F.S.
