ARTICLE IV PURPOSE

Section 4.1. The Company is a single-member limited liability company owned by a non-profit corporation (the "Parent Corporation"). Notwithstanding any other provisions of these articles, the Company is organized exclusively for exempt purposes under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (the "Code") or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law. The Company is operated exclusively to further the charitable purposes of its members.

Section 4.2. The Company shall have the power, either directly or indirectly, either alone or in conjunction or cooperation with others, to do any and all lawful acts and things and to engage in any and all lawful activities which may be necessary, useful, suitable, desirable or proper for the furtherance, accomplishment, fostering or attainment of any or all of the purposes for which a Company is organized, and to aid or assist other organizations whose activities are such as to further accomplish, foster or attain any of such purposes. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Company shall exercise only such powers as are in furtherance of the exempt purposes of its member or organizations as set forth in Section 501(c)(3) of the Code as the same now exist or as it may be hereinafter amended from time to time.
